

By Steph & David Ebert

G C G
You who eat richly, and have daily bread
G D
hunger for justice and righteousness
C
Come to the table
G
Oh, come to the table.

CHORUS

C G
This table that once was a cross
Cmaj7 G
now broken and bent yet again
C G
to hold the bread broken body
Cmaj7 G
blood poured out wine
C G
as we gather together like beggars in line
Am G
the walls all break down
C G
the walls all broke down
C D
in his body that day on the cross
Cmaj7 G
so we could come to the table.

G C G

Zealots and rebels, come lay down your swords

G D
Take up his peace in your empty hands.

C
Come to the table

G C G
Hypocrites holy, come lay down your pride,
G D
Come take his grace in your empty mouths.
C

Come to the table
G
Oh, come to the table.

CHORUS

G C G
Oppressed and oppressors, Victims, aggressors
G D
Together come share in his feast

C
Come to the table
G
Oh, come to the table

CHORUS (except last line)

CHORUS

C G
This table that once was a cross
Cmaj7 G
now broken and bent yet again
C G
to hold the bread broken body
Cmaj7 G
blood poured out wine
C G
as we gather together like beggars in line
C G
the walls all break down

C G
the walls all broke down
C D
in his body that day on the cross

BRIDGE

Em G
Oh Christ forgive us the things we've done
Em G
the shunning, the greed and the pride
Em G
Oh Christ forgive us the things we've undone
Em G Em G
justice, righteousness, love. (x2)

C D
Make us one body we pray
G
as we come to the table